Boys Night Out

Harding Elementary School was a hive of activity on Friday January 31, as dozens of fourth and fifth grade boys from all five city elementary schools participated in Lebanon School District's third Annual Boys Night Out Program. Underlying all the fun were a number of character-building lessons. The theme of the evening was courage, confidence and discipline. This program and the Girls Night Out, were mentioned in two national education publications, "Education Week" and the "ASCD Bulletin," which promote innovative educational practices.
